THE WINTER GARDEN.—Another Gorman as pirant for the honors of the English drama appeared at the Winter Garden on Monday night, in the person of Mme. Matha-Scheller. The interest of the event drew a full house, and the debutante achieved a decided success. The play selected for the occasion, entitled, "Lorlie's Wedding," is based on a touching little domestic drama by M. M. Birch-Pfeiffer, a popular Gorman dramatist best known in this country as the author of "Fanchon." The name of the original play as well as of the original author is of course carefully suppressed in the interest of the American adapter, who is announced as "Ang. Daly, esq." The motive for the suppression, in this case, may have originated in a vague consciousness on the part of the adapter that in undertaking to improve his original by engraving upon it a scene or two from a totally different play (another case of dramatic miscegenation) he had only succeeded in producing a wretched abortion. Such, at any rate, is the fact, so that but for the admirable acting of Mme. Scheller, fully supported by Mrs. Chanfrau and Mr. Davenport, "Lorlie's Wedding" would probably have been the greatest fiasco of the season.

Mme. Scheller has not yet obtained a perfect command of English, but her slight accent enhances rather than diminishes the charm of her performance, while there is a certain purity in her style which, united with an earnestness as rare as it is refreshing, appeals to every heart, and secures to her the sympathies of the audience from the start.

The character she has to portray in "Lorlie's Wedding" is that of a simple country girl (Lorlie), who falls in love with a fine artist, marries him, goes with him to court, where he becomes first ashamed, then tired of her, and finally by her devotion and fidelity wins him back to her, and goes back with him to the country, and is once more happy.

The only other characters of importance in the play are Lorlie's father, played with marked ability by Mr. Hind; her friend Barbel, a rustic lass, pictured to the life by Mrs. Chanfrau; and Christopher Bolder, a country bumpkin in hopeless love with Lorlie, played with considerable spirit by Mr. Davenport. The part of the artist is cast to Mr. Hagan, whose conformation of face and body, if as painful to execute as to witness, entitle him to much commendation. It only remains to say that both Mme. Scheller and Mrs. Chanfrau have several very pleasing songs to sing in the piece, and that they sing well enough at least to be enthusiastically encouraged.

It is probable that Mme. Scheller will appear in a less tedious play before the close of the week, in which case we beg to suggest, among other things, that some attention be paid to the manner in which it is put upon the stage.

When you feel Peculiar Pain at this season, in the head, with some confusion of ideas, having been previously in a fair state of health, lose no time, for the case will seldom bear it, but swallow at once four, six, or eight of BRANDRETH'S PILLS. Your life will be saved, and your health soon reestablished by this course. During hot weather the secretions of the bowels are often scanty, before an attack of Dysentery, especially. Now is the time for action.

Cease to put into the stomach what it cannot digest. Above all, purge out the bad humors, and thus remove the cause of disease. A few doses of BRANDRETH'S PILLS will remove all pain, uneasiness, and inconvenience. Inattention to this simple advice will in all probability be followed by congestion or inflammation of the Liver, or of other organs. Larger doses for a longer period will then become necessary, and much needless pain must be endured.

Lord Bacon wisely asserted: "Man's body, of all things in nature, is most susceptible of remedy." That is true; for all diseases have their origin in an impure state of blood, and BRANDRETH'S PILLS, by expelling these foul humors, will render the blood fluid and perfectly pure.

TESTIMONIAL. FROM ONE OF THE MOST RESPECTABLE CITIZENS OF NEW-YORK.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH CURED. No. 410 4th-av., New York, Dec. 3, 1863.

I was deaf for several years, and hearing of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I was induced to place myself under his care, and I am now happy to state that my hearing was entirely restored after a short treatment. I was also suffering from chronic catarrh, of which I was also cured by the skillful treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg. I do but justice to the Doctor by stating that in treating me he displayed that skill and knowledge which have already procured for him such a deserved reputation, and that the principles which direct his system of curing Deafness and Catarrh are such as to render success certain in my opinion. Many months have passed since Dr. Von Eisenberg restored my hearing, and it continues as good as ever.

O. HOPKINS.

READ NEW TESTIMONY OF CATARRH CURED. I have been suffering for a long time from a severe Catarrh, with continual dullness in my head, a slightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery, and very painful. My nostrils were constantly obstructed with a pouring fluid. I had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, often attended with a fullness of my throat, great soreness, and a continual dripping. Dr. Von Eisenberg has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I may, indeed, say that his treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg is as skillful as it is successful. It is, in my opinion, impossible to overstate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering from Catarrh to seek relief from Dr. Von Eisenberg's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured.

W. S. HUTCHINS, Lightning Calculator, Barnum's Museum.

Harlem, July 30, 1863. I have been deaf for over twenty-five years, and Dr. Von Eisenberg has operated on both my ears without the slightest pain. I did not believe such a thing could be done. I now hear well and feel my head clear, which I did not for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evinces the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE, No. 124 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 2, 1864.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the city without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is therefore due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR, New-York, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CARROLL J. POST, No. 29 South-st.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED. READ. New-York, March 20, 1863.

This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up, accompanied by continual sneezes of the throat, the child's sneezing over me with occasional hot flashes, a great tightness of the chest, and pain, so much so that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him, with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimony to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg, with a certainty of being cured.

Cudjo's Cave. THE GREAT NOVEL OF THE DAY! THE MOST SUCCESSFUL OF AMERICAN NOVELS.

EVERYBODY IS DELIGHTED WITH THE BOOK. ALL REVIEWS AND ALL CRITICS PRAISE IT, (Whatever their creed or whatever their politics.)

NEW AND ELEGANT EDITION NOW READY. NEW STYLE OF BINDING.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE SAYS: "The materials of this story are taken from event which occurred in Tennessee soon after the breaking out of the Rebellion. . . . The incidents of the plot are wrought up into a narrative of stirring interest, the dialogue is lively and spirited, and the various personages who take part in its action produce an impression of positive and often strongly marked individuality. Although founded on the temporary experiences of an exceptional period, the story will retain a durable hold on public interest by reason of its earnestness, vitality, and truth to nature."

GODFREY'S LADY'S BOOK SAYS: "Mr. Trowbridge has already gained a celebrity by his writings. This last work will give him a wider reputation. The scene is laid in Tennessee, in the beginning of the war excitement, and gives terrible pictures of the stormy passions of men and the sad scenes enacted. . . . The descriptions of natural scenery are vivid, and often beautiful and noble characters and lovely words of mercy are brought out on the dark canvas of civil war."

THE INDEPENDENT, WILMINGTON, DEL. SAYS: "Cudjo's Cave"—This is the title of the most interesting and interesting novel published in a long time, and is having an immense circulation. . . . It possesses the power to enchain the reader from the first line to the end, and is written with marked ability, in a most masterly manner."

THE CONTINENTAL MAGAZINE FOR APRIL SAYS: "We believe Mr. Trowbridge has achieved a rare success in his Cudjo. The plot is well conceived and sustained, and the interest never flags from the first page to the last. There is no dull reading in this book."

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE FOR APRIL SAYS: "In 'Cudjo's Cave' Mr. Trowbridge has even excelled his former works."

THE NEW-YORK INDEPENDENT SAYS THAT "Neighbor Jackwood," by the same author, is a powerful story; that the same masterly humor and the same felicity of description which appear in all Mr. Trowbridge's writings is here; that as a drama, 'Cudjo's Cave' would produce a thrilling effect. . . . The general effect of this book must be excellent. The facts it employs are terrible, it is true, but they will not be questioned in the face of myriads more terrible by far. The spirit of justice and humanity breathes from every page. The cause of Emancipation, of the Negro, and of the White Man finds a powerful auxiliary in 'Cudjo's Cave.'

THE NEW-YORK EVENING POST SAYS: "Mr. Trowbridge is a well-known contributor to the pages of the Atlantic Monthly, and in this volume he essays the task of a novel writer, founding his story on the incidents of the Rebellion in East Tennessee. . . . The incidents are grouped with excellent effect, and the interest in the story is sustained to the close. The sketches of border warfare are peculiarly vivid."

THE NEW-YORK DAILY NEWS (Fernando Wood's paper) SAYS OF CUDJO'S CAVE: "This is one of the most exciting novels which we have ever read. . . . We know of no work of the kind that has produced a more powerful impression upon us; and to judge by its success, the opinion we entertain of this novel has been shared by the public."

THE WIDE-WIDE WORLD (Boston) SAYS: "Probably no book that has been printed of late years has had so great a sale, and been so universally popular, and well received by the public as Cudjo's Cave. It combines more of the essential qualities that go to make up a 'real good book' than any work we have read in a long time."

THE BOSTON TRAVELLER SAYS: "Mr. Trowbridge's last work, 'Cudjo's Cave,' is worthy the well-established reputation of that very able writer, and justifies the warm reputation which it has met from all classes of readers. . . . If there are any who have not yet read this very clever book, we recommend them no longer to deny themselves so great an enjoyment as that which proceeds from an acquaintance with its lively pages."
